Glide in Blue [Region 2]. In his message to the State Legislature inthe Governor spoke eloquently of the purpose to be served by converting the State's arsenals to educational purposes: "If the success of these institutions should form the basis of future and important improvements, which may judiciously be extended to our free schools; if they should supply better teachers from their alumni; if they should suggest higher standards and better systems of morals;...or if they only awaken greater ardor in the people, and a warmer interest in our rulers, to advance the cause of education; they will achieve more for the weal and honor of our State than all the other labors and appliances of government could in any other manner confer.
